

WELLSPRING PRAYER

O Divine Wellspring, source of life and life's end,

In whom all the tributaries of life converge,

Take us down the well of our own life to the eternal spring within,

From which all people of faith have drawn.

Water now our thirsty souls,

Through story, symbol, and words we speak,

Through the silences we keep,

Through the bread we share,

Through all entrusted to our care.

As we draw deeply from the wellspring of your great kindness,

May our lives be a wellspring of mercy, justice, and peace. Amen.
